

Crossword Puzzle

Down:

1. A satellite that transfers information to mobile devices.
2. A satellite that scans the earth for high and low pressure systems, air flow, temperature, and storm development.
3. A satellite that aids man to experience space.

Across:

4. A satellite that is a resource to armed forces.
5. A satellite that helps find people in distress.
6. A type of satellite for studying the stars and planets.
7. A satellite that scans the earth in order to obtain information about it.
8. A satellite that helps in travel.
9. A satellite that allows military observation of a region to locate an enemy or ascertain strategic features.